

Scripture Reading -- from Matthew 25:31-40

When Christ comes in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then He will sit upon the throne of His glory:

And before Him will be gathered all nations: and He will separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats:

And He will put the sheep near his right hand, but the goats on the left.

Then the King will say to them near His right hand, Come, you who are blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the beginning of the world:

Because I was hungry, and you gave me food: I was thirsty, and you gave me drink: I was a stranger, and you took me in: naked, and you clothed me: I was sick, and you visited me: I was in prison, and you came to visit me.

Then the righteous will answer Him, saying, Lord, when did we see you hungry, and fed you? or thirsty, and gave you drink? When did we see you a stranger, and took you in? or naked, and gave you clothes? Or when did we see you sick, or in prison, and came to visit you?

And the King shall answer and say to them, Truly I say to you, in as much as you have done it for one of the least of these my people, you have done it to me.

Christ loves each of us and wants us to love and care for one another as He cares for us!

Christ tells us to care for one another in the following ways ...

What is Christ asking us to do here?

What are these people doing?
Why?

What could we do to help?

What is Christ's message to us about what you see in this photo?

Do you know of any places where people do not have water to drink?

What are these persons doing?

How does it help the person who is sick?

Why is this woman sitting on the sidewalk?

What can be done to help her?

Where do you think this girl is?

How does Christ want us to feel about her?

Do you know of anyone in our parish who visits persons who are in prison? How does it help them?
